

The Debaters Association of Victoria Debate Camp 2013

After a successful pilot program, the DAV is excited to announce its Debate Camp for 2013. The non-residential debating camp will run over three days and is for students in Years 10–12 with previous debating experience. It will include:

- Seminars dealing with debating theory and strategy (hard/soft lines, case construction, preparation for secret topics, etc.)
- Matter tutorials from DAV accredited trainers on recurring debating themes (economics, governance, law, politics, etc.)
- Rebuttal workshops
- Manner exercises and voice drills
- Two practice debates each day, with feedback from DAV adjudicators
- Daily quizzes on current affairs

Places are limited, so please register early to secure a place. A second camp will also run over the July holidays.

Maximum of 6 students per school. However please advise us if you have more students interested and we will contact you if spaces are available.

Registration

To register for the 2013 Debate Camp, please visit the DAV website at www.dav.com.au and click on 'schools'.

Once you complete the online form, we will send you payment information and parental consent forms which must be returned to the DAV.

Format

The camp will be held over 3 days and students will take part in lectures, workshops and debates.

When

Dates: Wednesday 10th to Friday 12th April 2013.

Times: 9AM–4PM

Location:

Melbourne High School,
Forrest Hill, South Yarra.

(access via Chapel St or Alexandra Ave)

Cost

Three day program: $180

Any two days: $150

What is included?

Lunch and morning tea will be provided. Students will be given a resource-kit containing information from each session.

DAV Office

Office Hours

Weekdays 10AM–5PM

Contact Details

Phone: 9348 9477

Fax: 9348 9466

Email: tda@dav.com.au