- (f) The Vice-President (Schools) must table all decisions made according to this rule at the next available Executive meeting, along with reasons for each decision.
- (g) If the complaint directly involves the Vice-President (Schools) or would give rise to a material conflict of interest, the complaint must be handled by a disinterested officer of the Executive appointed by the President.

- (d) The Vice-President (Adjudication & Training) must table all decisions made according to this rule at the next available Executive meeting.

 - ii. the Schools Administrator; and
 - iii. as many or as few other members of the Topics Advisory Committee as the Vice-President (Schools) sees fit.
- (d) The Topics Selection Board will assign topics to the prepared topic debates in each grade and each round where they occur, and set the topic area for any Advised Topic Debates.
- (e) The Topics Selection Board may also develop a list of suggested topics for use in Secret and Advised Topic Debates. Additionally -
 - i. The Vice-President (Schools) may re-convene the Topic Selection Board at certain times during the Schools Competition at their discretion to aid in determining topics for Secret and Advised Topic Debates; and
 - ii. The Vice-President (Schools) may authorise a topic for a Secret or Advised Topic Debate in the preliminary rounds that has not been suggested by either the Topics Advisory Committee or the Topics Selection Board.

- (f) The Vice-President (Schools) will also establish and convene a Schools Advisory Board, comprising the Debating Co-ordinators of at least five different schools. The Schools Advisory Board must include at least one Debating Co-ordinator from each of:

In response to the feedback the Vice-President (Schools) may reconvene the Topics Selection Board to alter the topics assigned under sub-rule (d).
- (h) The Topics Selection Board will be convened again before the finals series, and must determine topics for all of the finals.
 - i. The Vice-President (Schools) may also convene the Topics Advisory Committee to aid the Topic Selection Board in this task; and
 - ii. The Topics Advisory Committee Topic Selection Board for the finals series need not be of the same composition as the Board or Committee established at the start of the year, but must still meet the requirements of sub-rules (a) and (c) respectively.

25. Grades

- (a) The Schools Competition shall be divided into four grades:
 - i. A Grade, for students in Year 12 or equivalent or below;

Additionally, a continuous bell shall sound once a speaker has exceeded the speaking time for their grade by 30 seconds.
- (c) The Vice-President (Schools) has the general power to determine the allocation of schools across regions and to determine the number of teams attending each region. The Vice-President (Schools) may, amongst other things—
 - i. combine, or not offer, certain grades where conditions in a region dictate that this would be appropriate. For example, the Vice-President (Schools) may combine A and B Grade into a 'VCE Grade'. When this occurs –
 - A. the grade shall be subject to the rules of the higher original grade with respect to topics and speaking times;
 - B. the teams in the grade which would have qualified only for the highest of the combined grades (for example, A grade teams in a merged VCE grade) will be subject to the rules of the higher grade with respect to finals; and
 - C. the teams in any grade which would have qualified for a lower grade in the combined grade (for example, B grade teams in a merged VCE grade) may qualify for finals in the lower grade if:

- I. Within the combined grade, they would have been eligible for finals under rule 40; or
 - II. The Vice-President (Schools) grants permission for them to proceed to finals. Such permission may only be granted where no other team from that lower grade has an higher number of ladder points as calculated under rule 36;
- ii. restrict the number of teams entered in a grade within a region—
 - A. generally, where the Vice-President (Schools), on advice from the Schools Administrator, is satisfied that there are insufficient resources to enable participation by all schools reasonably wishing to enter teams in that grade in the region; and
 - B. by a particular Participating School, where the Vice-President (Schools) is satisfied—
 - I. that the number of teams the Participating School has entered exceeds the school’s capabilities; or
 - II. that it is otherwise appropriate to do so; or
- iii. require, where the Vice-President (Schools) deems it appropriate, a school to participate in a region different to the region for which it indicated a preference when it registered to participate.

26. Teams

- (a) A team must consist of at least four members, but no more than 9 members, unless approval is otherwise given by the Vice-President (Schools).
- (b) A team must not in any circumstances, however, consist of fewer than three members.
- (c) A debater may only be entered for a team equivalent to their year level at school or a higher year level unless –
 - i. that school has two teams or less entered in the competition; and
 - ii. the Vice-President (Schools) has granted an exemption for a debater to participate in a team lower to their year level at school.
- (d) The Vice-President (Schools) must not grant an exemption under sub-rule (c)(ii) where –
 - i. it would result in the majority of the members of that team being granted an exemption;
 - ii. the Vice-President (Schools) believes it would be more appropriate for that team to compete in an higher grade; or
 - iii. some other reason exists that the Vice-President (Schools) believes that the team would receive an unfair advantage, or that it would not be in the interests of the Schools Competition.
- (e) Any decision made by the Vice-President (Schools) under sub-rule (c) must be tabled at the next meeting of the Executive.
- (f) The Vice-President (Schools) will assign a name to each team.
- (g) With the permission of the Vice-President (Schools), a Participating School may—
